Aims and objectives of this presentation
Having attended the course, the attendee should:
• Understand the basic physical principles referable to urodynamics
• Be able to assess the quality of a urodynamic trace
• Recognise common artefacts and know how to correct them
• Know the indications for urodynamic studies in children, men, women and neurological patients.