Immuo-oncology: A hype or a potential new foundation for GU cancers?

Industry session by BRISTOL-MYERS SQUIBB

Sunday, 13 March
17:45 - 19:15

Location: Room Paris (Hall B2, level 0)

Chairs: L. Albiges, Villejuif (FR)
        M-O. Grimm, Jena (DE)

Aims and objectives of this presentation
This symposium aims to raise awareness of the emerging role of immuno-oncology in genitourinary cancers. It will discuss ongoing research and highlight recent advancements in the research effort to harness the immune system to treat these cancers.

17:45 - 17:50
Welcome and introductions
M-O. Grimm, Jena (DE)

17:50 - 18:10
I-O: A new mode of action
I. Duran, Seville (ES)

18:10 - 18:30
Redefining treatment expectations for metastatic renal cell carcinoma
L. Albiges, Villejuif (FR)

18:30 - 18:50
I-O in bladder cancer: A question of patient selection?
M-O. Grimm, Jena (DE)

18:50 - 19:10
Discussion - Questions and answers

19:10 - 19:15
Summary and close
L. Albiges, Villejuif (FR)